About

Davide Radaelli Design Studio, con sede a Milano, fornisce servizi di consulenza a clienti italiani ed internazionali, sviluppando progetti di disegno industriale, exhibit design, architettura di interni, grafica e direzione artistica.

Diversi lavori sono stati pubblicati o esposti a livello internazionale e Davide è stato più volte membro di giuria di concorsi internazionali di design.

Convinto dei vantaggi di un approccio integrato alla progettazione, lo studio si è costruito negli anni una rete di partner di alto livello, così da poter contare su un ventaglio di servizi che possono contribuire allo sviluppo di progetti di differente complessità.

Diamo molta importanza all'attenzione nei confronti dei clienti e al cercare di dare vita a collaborazioni di lunga durata, lavorando con loro non solo come consulenti ma come partner.

Davide Radaelli Design Studio, based in Milano (Italy), provides a multidisciplinary design and communication consultancy for international brands in the fields of product design, exhibit and interior design, graphic design and art direction.

Some works of ours have been published by international press and exhibited in design shows all around the world. Davide has also been member of several international design competitions.

Believing in an integrated approach to design, the studio has built a network of first-class partners, so as to rely on a range of services which can contribute to the development of projects of different complexity.

We give great importance to being committed to our clients and we aim to establish long term business relationships, working with them not just as common consultants but rather as partners.

Ecco cosa possiamo fare insieme
